4 Dupe. 9135-6 dy 17.11.90

The Amildar recommends the above concession in favor of the Madigars on the ground that they render their service in carrying corpses to Hospitals for Post Mortem Examinations and taking Cadaval to Villages, for which they receive no remuneration of any kind, and no other class of people come forward to perform such services.

23 Madigars, who are now recommended for exemption, are taxed with Rs 1-4 at the rate of 8 annas each, and the members of the Municipal Board are in favor the concession being shown to them.-

Sir,

With reference to Govt. Pro: No. 11041 dated the 8th January last, I have the honor to state that as a rule Coorg Madigars in the villages pay no house tax in consideration of their doing village service such as carrying tappal, supplies &c.

2. There are very few such Madigars in the Malnad Taluks of the District. They are generally found in almost every village of the Ivaidan parts.

3. Complaints against the taxation have been received at the last January from the Ivadjans of Kumsi and Hole Hommu in Shimoja which are also Immunicipal towns. The Imamool of exempting Sor Ivadjans from house tax is a very old one and only those that perform a profession such as making shoes, slippers or working as carpenters &c. are required to pay the house tax.

4. The Ivadjans in all the Immunicipal towns may may well be allowed the indulgence prayed for. The tax they pray is but a trifle, but heartburnings on account of the payment are great. It is very advisable to have some hold on them in the interest of the village service by granting them the concession enjoyed by their brethren in the rural villages.
